Worship Leader:

John Daniello, Ruling Elder

Preparation for Worship: Psalm 90:1

Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.

Call to Worship: Psalm 90:14, 15

Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, and for as many years as we have seen evil.

Invocation

+Opening Hymn: O Worship the King

Hymnal no. 2

Confession of Sin

Almighty God, we have worked hard this week and come now hiding the thought in our hearts that you would be pleased and find our work acceptable. Yet our work is shamefully inadequate, and our pride surely afflicts us. It is not our work but yours O God. If you show us favor in the measure of our goodness then we have nothing. So Heavenly Father we pray for your favor because of Christ, and yearn that you would sanctify what we do that it might reflect the glory of your work in us.

Assurance of Pardon: Psalm 90:16, 17

Let your work be shown to your servants, and your glorious power to their children. Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands upon us; yes, establish the work of our hands!

+Song of Response: When Trials Come

Confession of Faith: Westminster Shorter Catechism Q37, 38

Preparation for Next Week: Pray through Psalm 63. Praying through the Psalms: Book of reference: Learning to pray through the Psalms, James W. Sire. Use this guide each week: 1. Read, reread, and read again! 2. Clarify the text, get an understanding of each word or phrase. 3. Analyze the structure: the flow of ideas, the flow of emotions, and the rhetorical structure. 4. What does the psalm tell you about God's character? His covenant with His people? His redemption? 5. Understand the psalmist's own complex and changing relationship to God. 6. Make the speech of the psalmist your own by repeating the words as your own, adapting the words to your situation.
